1. The Bid Set plans originally provided on the NOVA Parks' website with the Project Manual are correct and have not changed. However, there have been reported issues with opening and printing the plan set. A new set has been added to the website, <https://www.novaparks.com/about/bids-proposals> that has addressed the issue and makes it easier to print the plans. Please note that this set of plans is flattened for easier printing and will only appear in black and white. There are no other differences from the original plan set.
