

ON-SITE WITH INSIGHT: A 13-Part Loudoun History Series in the Field

Thursday evenings this spring, 6:30-9:30 § March 7 – June 6, 2019

Are you new to the area? Are you curious about Loudoun's history? Do you see things on Loudoun's historic landscape and wonder what and why they are? Are you interested in making sense of our Northern Virginia heritage while tying the themes of our past with how things are today? Then this intimate explore-by-night field trip-based series is just right for you!

Join public historian and long-time history educator Rich Gillespie to learn, visit, and discuss with other Loudouners our historic landscape. Our 13-part series will get you out of the house and in to a new and vibrant community.

Just $195 per person for the series!

For a full schedule and to register:

http://apm.activecommunities.com/novaparks/Activity_Search/2620

or call Tracy Gillespie at NOVA Parks, (703) 327-9777 for more information

Sponsored by your Northern Virginia Regional Park Authority (NOVA Parks)

Co-sponsored by: the Loudoun Museum, the Loudoun Preservation Society, the Lovettsville Historical Society, the Mosby Heritage Area Association, the Purcellville Historical Society, the Short Hill Historical Society, and the Waterford Foundation, each assisting the class.

